

National Heroes, Barbados

New museum located in the newly refurbished original Parliament Building, centred on the history of their Parliament (which dates back to the 17th century), and their National Heroes who fought for Freedom and Democracy. Local artists have created iconic sculptures which capture the essence of each Hero.

