

Bedford Castle Mound

Design and implementation of an interpretation scheme arising out of our earlier strategy. An open sided timber shelter with a clay tile roof has been built on the mound, using early building techniques. From here, visitors can view the river and read the metal etched plaques telling the story of the site.

