

M E R L

The Museum of English Rural Life

Our brief was to display as many of the artefacts as possible, which involved the innovative, high level display of many items of farming implements, including ploughs and wagons.

